The Military Child Education Coalition (MCEC) is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization that promotes partnerships and provides for networking of military installations and their supporting school districts. Their focus is to address transition and other educational issues related to the military-connected child, including active duty, National Guard, and Reserves. MCEC seeks to include all military installations, their supporting schools, concerned organizations, and caring individuals.

Military Student.ORG is a Department of Defense official site with many resources: Transition Toolkits: The Department of Defense prepared these toolkits to help parents, installation commanders, and school leaders make the education transition for military children as smooth as possible.

Sesame Street Talk, Listen, Connect: These bilingual kits will help military families and their young children cope with feelings, challenges, and concerns experienced during various phases of deployment: pre-deployment, deployment and homecoming.

Special Gift of SAT Software for Military Students: Thanks to the generous donation by a group of professional football players, military families can obtain an SAT or ACT test prep software program worth $199.

Promising Practices: An opportunity for state governments and local school districts to share programs, procedures, and practices designed to make transition from school to school more efficient, more effective, and less traumatic for students of military personnel.
